

Look out for this weeks Cycling Weekly which contains a 6 page article about "the greatest time triallist that never was", Charlotteville CC's own Derek Cottingham. The article focuses on the scandal of him being denied the National 25 mile competition record in the early seventies and his exploits in the years that followed. Derek was made a club life member recently and the article explains a lot about why he deserved this honour

